

The Streetlight Diaries

Search The City

Street lights carry me home tonight
And this will be the last time
That I ever make this drive
We haven't talked in days
And it's clear what you are trying to say Things are changing and you keep running away
Street lights carry me home tonight
And this will be the last time
That I ever make this drive It was the best it's ever been
All good things must come to an end
And I'll take one last breath tonight
And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this You've got heart shapes in ink
Yeah, you wear it on your sleeve
You're so the one-liner, I'm such the critic
We've all been cynics once in our lives And you talk about the hard times
Like you've had such a hard life
Should I be impressed
With how easy you undressed? It was the best it's ever been
All good things must come to an end
And I'll take one last breath tonight
And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this I can't breathe with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this The truth hurts and you're killing me It was the best it's ever been
All good things must come to an end
And I'll take one last breath tonight
And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this

Songwriters

James William Czech; Alexander Joseph Sheldon; Adam Mcmillion; Joshua Robert Frost Published by SEARCH THE CITY PUBLISHING; THIRSTY MOON RIVER PUBLISHING Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>