

The Streetlight Diaries

Search The City

Street lights carry me home tonight

And this will be the last time

That I ever make this drive

We haven't talked in days

And it's clear what you are trying to say Things are changing and you keep running away

Street lights carry me home tonight

And this will be the last time

That I ever make this drive It was the best it's ever been

All good things must come to an end

And I'll take one last breath tonight

And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest

And you've got a history on your breath

That tells of scandals and secrets

I've got reasons for this You've got heart shapes in ink

Yeah, you wear it on your sleeve

You're so the one-liner, I'm such the critic

We've all been cynics once in our lives And you talk about the hard times

Like you've had such a hard life

Should I be impressed

With how easy you undressed? It was the best it's ever been

All good things must come to an end

And I'll take one last breath tonight

And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest

And you've got a history on your breath

That tells of scandals and secrets

I've got reasons for this I can't breathe with this burning in my chest

And you've got a history on your breath

That tells of scandals and secrets

I've got reasons for this The truth hurts and you're killing me It was the best it's ever been

All good things must come to an end

And I'll take one last breath tonight

And watch these headlights pass you by I can't breathe with this burning in my chest

And you've got a history on your breath

That tells of scandals and secrets

I've got reasons for this
