Sudden Movements

Billy Talent

Well, I'm scared of my reflection
Is it mine or is it yours?
And I swear I hear the knocking
But there's no one at the doorDon't think I'm losing my perspective
'Cause I know one thing for sure
They've been watching, they've been listening
Every whisper, every wordYour sudden movements, sudden movements
Gonna give us all away
No sudden movements, sudden movements
Or they'll blow us all awayDare I find my information
Who's the black sheep of the herd?
I am the guardian of angels
And they'll get what they deserveSo lock your children in the basement
Keep a rifle by the door
Don't be afraid of my intentions
'Cause I'm more afraid of yoursYour sudden movements, sudden movements
Gonna give us all away
No sudden movements, sudden movements
Or they'll blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements
Gonna give us all away
No sudden movements, sudden movements
Or they'll blow us all away, away, awayBlow us all away
Blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements
Gonna give us all away
No sudden movements, sudden movements
Or they'll blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements
Gonna give us all away
No sudden movements, sudden movements
Or they'll blow us all away, away, away
