Sudden Movements

Billy Talent

Well, I'm scared of my reflection
Is it mine or is it yours?
And I swear I hear the knocking

But there's no one at the doorDon't think I'm losing my perspective

'Cause I know one thing for sure

They've been watching, they've been listening

Every whisper, every wordYour sudden movements, sudden movements

Gonna give us all away

No sudden movements, sudden movements

Or they'll blow us all awayDare I find my information

Who's the black sheep of the herd?

I am the guardian of angels

And they'll get what they deserveSo lock your children in the basement

Keep a rifle by the door

Don't be afraid of my intentions

'Cause I'm more afraid of yours Your sudden movements, sudden movements

Gonna give us all away

No sudden movements, sudden movements

Or they'll blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements

Gonna give us all away

No sudden movements, sudden movements

Or they'll blow us all away, away, awayBlow us all away

Blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements

Gonna give us all away

No sudden movements, sudden movements

Or they'll blow us all awayYour sudden movements, sudden movements

Gonna give us all away

No sudden movements, sudden movements

Or they'll blow us all away, away, away
