All Mixed Up

Red House Painters

She shadows me in the mirror
She never leaves on the light
And some things that I've said to her
They just don't seem to biteIt's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed upShe tricks me into thinking
That I can't believe my eyes
That I wait for her forever
But she never does arriveIt's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed upShe said leave it to me
Everything will be alright
She said leave it to me
Everything will be alrightShe's always out making pictures
She's always out making scenes
She's always out the window
When it comes to making dreamsIt's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed upIt's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed upShe said leave it to me
Everything will be alright
She said leave it to me
Everything will be alrightShe said leave it to me
Everything will be, be alright
She said leave it to me
Everything will be, be alrightIt's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
It's all mixed up
