

The Morning Is Waiting

Field Music

Wake up
The morning is here
It is waiting down the stairs for you
Don't forget your dream is
Over now
The day has come
It is waiting out the door for you
And do not forget to say "Hello" To everyone you meet
And if there were a word
To remind them
Where they're from
It surely be your name
So say "Hello"
(ah ahhh..)
So those who need to hear you
Can hear you And all that dreaming will come in a while
And all that dreaming will come in a while
And all that dreaming will come in a while
And all that dreaming will come in a while
All that dreaming will come in a while
That dreaming will come
