

Marionette

Reuben And The Dark

Well I know my sins and sorrows
But I will tend my wounds tomorrow
Oh, I know my sins and sorrowsI said Lord, don't take my body
Oh, cause I never hurt nobody
Oh, I said Lord don't you take my bodyNo you don't know my brother he's a broken bone
A kicking horse on a crooked road
Don't mind my brother he's a marionette
With a sinking stone when he's holding his breathI said Lord, don't have mercy on me
I'm looking for a light in the darkest of streets
I said Lord, don't you have mercy on me
I'm looking for a light in the darkest of streetsOh, rivers and roads
Widow and winding
I left my body
But I didn't leave my mindOh, rivers and roads
Widow and wide
I left my body
But I didn't leave my mindOh whoa, Denied
Oh whoa, Denied, whoaI saw the sign
It was hung from the sky
Right here above the water
But they didn't seem to mindOh, I'll cut you down
For I know you are weak
And will those who love you
Love you when you're free?Oh, I saw the sign
It was hung from the sky
But they didn't seem to mindOh, and I'll cut you down
For I know you are weak
And will those who love you
Love you when you're free?
