

Last Ride

Danzig

Lay you down, lay you there
No more tears, no more breath
And my numbness chills my sight
And then there's nothing 'til the sunlight cries
The glazing eyes are full of flies
And then there's nothing 'til the sunlight rise
When you woke that veil of night
And you're too numb to realise
That you're going out on your last ride
And I'm lonely
Climb the wall, hands tied
And I'm killing time
Down on my last ride
And I'm lonely
When the world has gone and died
Oh I'm lonely
When the world has died
Yet I'm killing time
Down on my last ride
Fuck I'm lonely
When the world has come and died (Hey!) And I'm gonna take that ride
And I'm gonna take that ride
And never gonna see that light
Just killing time on my last ride
And I'm gonna take that ride
And I'm gonna take that ride
And never gonna see that light (Yeah!)
Just killing time on my last ride (Hey!)
