

The Queen Is Back

Donna Summer

She walks into the room
And everybody knows
It's not a day too soon
She stands and strikes her pose
Yeah, whoa, whoa
(She's back)
Keep on sayin' that you want to see her
(She's back)
Look in the mirror and you want to be her
(She's back)
From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
(She's back)
People screaming that you want your diva
(She's back)
I always told you that I'd never leave you
(She's back)
From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
I'm your friend, I'm your lover
I'm your sister, my dear brother
I'm your dear fairy godmother
Now you know your queen is back
Call the DJ, call the station
Dancing all across the nation
Here for every generation
Now you know your queen is back
So many years ago
On the radio
She crept into your soul
And loved to love you oh, oh
(She's back)
Keep on sayin' that you want to see her
(She's back)
Look in the mirror and you want to be her
(She's back)
From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
(She's back)

People screaming that you want your diva
(She's back)
I always told you that I'd never leave you
(She's back)

From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
I'm your friend, I'm your lover
I'm your sister, my dear brother
I'm your dear fairy godmother
Now you know your queen is back
Call the DJ, call the station
Dancing all across the nation
Here for every generation
Now you know your queen is back
The queen is back
(Keep on sayin')

That you want me when you're all alone
(Keep on sayin')

That I make you feel like you belong
(Keep on sayin')

That you want your diva one on one
I keep on sayin'

Baby, baby, baby here I come
(She's back)

Keep on sayin' that you want to see her
(She's back)

Look in the mirror and you want to be her
(She's back)

From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
(She's back)

People screaming that you want your diva
(She's back)

I always told you that I'd never leave you
(She's back)

From the beginning it's a long career
Guess who's back? Guess who's back?
I'm your friend, I'm your lover
I'm your sister, my dear brother
I'm your dear fairy godmother
Now you know your queen is back
Call the DJ, call the station
Dancing all across the nation
Here for every generation

Now you know your queen is back
The queen is back
