In My Car

The Magnetic Fields

You were mean to me and broke my heart
Now you've gone away and we're apart
But I've got a special machine to take me where Things turned out differently and you still careIn my car, I'm in my car
I'm taking a ride to somewhere inside
Where you never left and I never criedTaking a ride to somewhere inside
Where you never left me and I never cried
At the speed of light in my carNever comin' back to this world
I know where I belong, where I'm your girl
So I've got fuzzy dice to bring me luck
Roll me to a better place where we can rockIn my car, I'm in my car
I'm taking a ride to somewhere inside
Where you never left me and I never cried
At the speed of light in my carI'm in my car, in my car
I'm taking a ride to somewhere inside
Where you never left and I never criedI'm taking a ride to somewhere inside
Where you never left me and I never cried
At the speed of light in my car
