Guided Missile

Daniel Antopolsky

Jewels rocks smoothed by ocean shores
A treasure chest, Iâ€™m sure
Oh wherever the seas kiss the land
Loveâ€™s blessinâ€™ is secure

Sand dunes sift to greet the sun
A desert laced with wealth
Lighthouse beams to everyone
To open up the self
Lighthouse beams to everyone
To open up the self

And thatâ€™s why, your love hit me like a guided missile
Throbs my heart like a police whistle
Changes me like a space-vehicle
Winginâ€™ us away, yeah!
Your love hit me like a guided missile
Throbs my heart like a police whistle
Changes me like a space-vehicle
Winginâ€™ us away

Invision gazinâ€™ from a high plateau
Waves wisp a lullaby
Stars brighten the eye
Sandman in the wind
Seagulls flirt with the sky

Vividly imagine, movinâ€™ in land
Where the hills rise high with the trees
Streams so clear
And water so dear
Springs new flowers every year
Streams so clear
And water so dear
Springs new flowers every year

And thatâ€™s why, your love hit me like a guided missile
Throbs my heart like a police whistle
Changes me like a space-vehicle

Winginâ€™ us away, yeah

Yeah, your love hit me like a guided missile
Throbs my heart like a police whistle
Changes me like a space-vehicle
Winginâ€™ us, winginâ€™ us
Winginâ€™ us away, ooh ooh
