Sentimental Times

Anders Osborne

It's been many years now, since you passed away.
Somedays I stil wait for you to call.
Been through some hard times, mom, but we made it out alright.
I just wish I could tell you bout it all.Oh my oh myy
All these emotions running my mind.
These are my sentimental times.Driving through the neighborhood where my best friend's parents used to live.
It's all deserted and gray.
Coffee shop's gone, bank's moved on, bike trail to the lakes all overgrown.
Katrina came, and took it all away.Oh my oh myy
All these emotions running my mind.
These are my sentimental times.
