Lonely Cries

Waverland

She hits the ocean every night to dry her lonely eyes
I wipe her lonely cries... She needs a guy who can treat her right
Who can treat her right - yeah treat her right
Late night on the sandy beaches girl hits the coast and she walks into my world
If youâ€™re a girl with the lonely cries then say â€œoh oh ohâ€•
Yo girl are you okay why such the lonely face? We just came to say
Thereâ€™s not a cure for a broken heart
Now see girl take my hand under lonely stars
Now we can walk the beach near the oceanâ€™s surface
Your moonlit face and your beautyâ€™s perfect
I hope you know this - your heart is pure as gold is
You stare at the ocean and time stands still - slow motion
Yo boy let me tell you this cuz if You break her heart it will go like this Sheâ€™ll come down to the coast with the lonely cries and then
Iâ€™ll be the guy thatâ€™ll treat her right
And then youâ€™ll be all alone say â€œoh ohâ€•- Like you have never cried before - oh
You know should have not let go - oh, now say â€œoh oh ohâ€œ
Yo girl are you okay why such the lonely face â€“ we just came to say
I hope you know this - your heart is pure as gold is
You stare at the ocean and time stands still - slow motion
No cries for your lonely eyes and no fears no lies when youâ€™re by my side now see
Just put your trust in me
She hits the ocean like every single night after every single fight
She hits the ocean, and I come to her side and I say that itâ€™ll be alright
