Uh, yes I am often imitated But I am never duplicated, yeah Yes I am often imitated But I am never duplicated I can't deny it, you's a dick rider You can never flow like me, blow like me Why would a bitch like ya? She can see that I'm a fuckin' rider, you a hitch hiker I'm walkin' in some shoes, they can't make fit ya Got millions of that paper that you can't take with ya I don't wanna talk and I can't take pictures Listen to your demo, I'll handshake with ya Excuse you, who's you? If I need a stunt double, I'll use you Pardon y'all, I don't wanna step on y'all toes I seperate the authentic from the replica flows And the kid be places you could never be at So that can never be this, and this can never be that These niggaz got some audacity Sell some records as fast as me Or sell some tickets out as fast as me, motherfucker Yes I am often imitated (Yes he is often imitated) But I am never duplicated (But he is never duplicated) Yes I am often imitated (Yes he is often imitated) But I am never duplicated So all that y'all can do is hate it None of these wannabes really come close I feel like I'm watchin' the MTV show Christina Milian hosts Everybody know this brother got it Way before everybody and their mother got it They still wonder how he sound like he do If I was you, I'd wanna sound like me too 'Cause I got M's, they got G's and they all right But they not me They hear how I spit it on a station Now they wanna put me on they singles just to get an imitation

No, I can't make an appearance

Give you a cheap fee or break on a clearance
I'm what your label hoped it could be
That's why they trying to mould your little ass, into a sculpture of me
With the ladies it'll be like leader, she like real
See I tryin' to be like me and be like ill

Yes I am often imitated (Yes he is often imitated)

But I am never duplicated

(But he is never duplicated)

Yes I am often imitated

(Yes he is often imitated)

But I am never duplicated

So all that y'all can do is hate it

I'm real, it's the way I talk, the way I walk It ain't my fault, I won't let nothin' on two legs stop me

'Cause the real is always better than the bootleg copy

Like I ain't show 'em the white and yellows at the same time

Throw backs and pin wheels at the same time

Like I'm scared to drop at the same time

I'll show you how to do this young'n

I ain't frontin', these Jordan's ain't comin'

It ain't nothin', keep the complaints comin'

Can't hop on my bandwagon, jump in my blue flames

You should not try, you are not I

It's the dude with the Grammy grin

It's no relation if it ain't a street family kin

So won't the real Fabolous please stand up

Please stand up, please stand up

Yes I am often imitated

(Yes he is often imitated)

But I am never duplicated

(But he is never duplicated)

Yes I am often imitated

(Yes he is often imitated)

But I am never duplicated

So all that y'all can do is hate it
