Buzz Kill

PIXL

I have seen, uh, killer bees, uh, kill people, um, kill horses,
They will attack anything that moves, anything that makes noise, smells, uh, they don't care what they sting.
They will kill anything.Black and yellow in color, they work together as the ultimate killing machine
...made up of lancets that inject a venomous toxin into their victims
These frightening swarms are the result of an experiment gone wrong a deadly mistake.
