

Last Night In Town

The Twilight Singers

Whenever you're here you're alive
The devil says you can do what you like
Come what may, come what might
You'll see me there They've come to bury you, child
And there's a man on the loose in your eyes
But should you stay and should you fight
You'll see me there Dreaming, dreaming
Dreaming true and true
Screaming, oh, my Lord
When the scheme's undone one will survive Get in line, take your broken number
I'll wait for you
'Cause, baby, I've come to take you under
Your number, I thought it up It's easy, easy
Easy through and through
Easy, oh, my Lord
It's easy when There's nowhere to hide in me
Love, take me now
You'll see me in your disguise I promise to be with you 'til the end
Or somewhere near the end, my love
I promise to be with you 'til the end
At least until you're dead
