So Long

Uh Huh Her

All I hear are your stupid lines
Save you from your sorrowed life
24 hours is not enough time
To make me feel alright
(Oh yeah)
It's not enough time
(Oh yeah)
You know you wanna
You keep those lies inside your head
They'll come out sooner or later
Don't you think that you've been so misled
You'll keep them buried forever, hey
I know you wanna
Oh yeah
I know you wanna
You see it all comes down to a different feel
You see it all comes 'round again
You see we lose ourselves
when there's nothing real

So long, so long, so long, hey
You wanna push it all away
It sneaks up sooner or later
You like to look like you behave
Why don't you stop pretending, hey
You know you wanna
Oh yeah
I know you wanna
You see it all comes down to a different feel
You see it all comes 'round again
You see we lose ourselves
So long, so long, so long
You see it all comes down to a different feel
You see it all comes 'round again
You see we lose ourselves
when there's nothing real
So long, so long, so long, hey
