You and Not Me

Devour the Day

i need to sit awhile but i can't rest my tired bones this life that i'm living has taken control my skin is wearing thin my heart has turned to black and i can't get the devil off of my back

leave me alone

i can't, i can't believe it
why don't you see it
your the one whose saved
you and not me
I can't, i can't believe it
i just don't see it
you and not me

i can still remember how it feels to be alive i knew where i'd be going at the ending of my time somehwere inbetween i know i just lost track but i can't get the devil get the devil off of my back

you and not me
you and not me
