Still Not Satisfied

Ambrosia

Well, I'm living but I still ain't satisfied
I'm running and I don't know where to hide
'Cause there have been lovers, places I've known
Strangers I've turned to when I've been alone
And I'm leaving 'cause I'm still not satisfied
And I'm bleeding and I don't know where to hideThere have been places I'd like to have seen
Dreams that have never come true
But in this lifetime there's no in between
In between living with you, yeah, no, noI've been shot down but still I stand to fight
I know what's wrong but I don't know what's right
'Cause all of your money, sweet talk and gold
Can't buy a heart back that's already sold
And I'm leaving 'cause I still ain't satisfied
Yes, I'm leaving and I don't know where to hideI have no reason to go back again
Living but not getting through
'Cause in this lifetime there's no in between
In between living with you, no I'm feeling satisfiedAin't found nothing to rely on, no place I feel at home
Show me something to get by on
Seems I've waited so long
I don't hear what you say anymoreWell, I'm running and I'm bleeding
[Incomprehensible]
