You Are My Window (Rough Cut)

Nazz

You are my window
You cast my shadow
All in the light is you
All I ever saw in the love light was you All I knew
You are my marrow
You cast my sorrow
You feel the world for me
You are what the world isn't feeling for me
And the key Here with me
And the world is black but I can't see my window
You are my prism
You are my reason You're what I want to be
You are everything that I want you to be You're my key Set me free Open up my mind
Make me be the soul you hope to find Keep me in line
We know I'm not all I should be feeling Don't make me fake it I'm not all love sense
Not all,
always,
not all,
free and,
not all,
me and,
not all
You are,
you are,
you are,
you are,
you are my window You're my everyday my pathway,
you're my mind,

my hope,
my light,
my dream,
my sleep
You are my pillow
You are my willow
You shouldn't wait for me
No one need weep for me anymore
You're my door
