Real Things

Faith Evans

[Chorus:]
Security Serenity Stability
The therapy the memories the unity
The loyalty the honesty the sanity
Familiar... predictability
You and meA white house surrounded by a pink fence on a hill
A black Cadillac a back... filled with one hundred dollar bills
It's all good for nothing it's not what we are made of Cannot sell you for no price
The real things of life[Chorus:]
Security Serenity Stability
The therapy the memories the unity
The loyalty the honesty the sanity
Familiar predictability
You and meThe swap off a credit card substitutes what is real
Buying expensive gifts for the sake of what you feel
It's not really showing love that it's not what we're made of Spinning the cash won't keep rightThe real things in life[Chorus:]
Security Serenity Stability
The therapy the memories the unity
The loyalty the honesty the sanity
Familiar... predictability
You and meSecurity Serenity Stability
The therapy the memories the unity
The loyalty the honesty the sanity
Familiar... predictability
You and meHere is a quote to memorize
Mad men is a merchandise
Maximize and recognize
The real miss in lifeRead about...
Jeopardize all is fine
Brutalizes your real life
You've... your prideSecurity Serenity Stability
The therapy the memories the unity
The loyalty the honesty the sanity
Familiar... predictability
