

Too Late (To Be Saved)

The Tremeloes

Too late to find the reason
Too late to wonder why
Too soon to forget the question
Too soon to have to decide Just why
I'm still thinking about the times and places
What could have been
What could have been different
What should have been
It's too late Too late to kiss the answer
Too late to slap the truth
Too soon to cover footsteps
Too soon to start anew On a different trail of lies
Ignoring questions and wondering why
I can't say I don't love you
And just can't say I do
Too late Too late, too late, too late, too late
Too late, too late, too late, too late Too late to find the reason
Too late to wonder why
Too soon to forget the question
Too soon to have to decide Too late to slap the answer
Too late to kiss the truth
Too soon to cover footsteps
Too soon to start anew
Too late
