

Divorce

The Daredevil Christopher Wright

I will make it up to you.
Anything you want me to.
The past is past I can't undo.
So I will make it up to you. What can you say for all that you've done?
There's just no way.
Did you ever think for a moment about your son.
Your child. Your little boy? I can't say I'm proud of what I've done.
