

All For You

Raluka

Tell me why, tell me why your eyes go walking
When you say you love me
Tell me why, tell me why you're only calling
When you crave my body
So obvious
That your game is solitaire and no more for us
When you don't ever play me fair
'Cause I'm finding out that this was
All for you
Everything you do
Now it's all for nothing
For nothing
'Cause I'm riding solo
This was yours to lose
All that bedtimes blues
I'll leave that all for you
Tell me straight, tell me straight with one life jacket
What would you do with it?
Tell me straight, tell me straight if I were stranded
Could you save me?
'Cause this it's so obvious
That you always walk alone
And no more for us
When you're a king without a throne
'Cause I'm finding out that this was
All for you
Everything you do
Now it's all for nothing
For nothing
'Cause I'm riding solo
This was yours to lose
All that bedtimes blues
I'll leave that all for you
All for you
Take me away
Just take me away from here
Take me away
Just take me away from here
Take me away

'Cause this was all for you
For you
Now it's all for nothing
For nothing
'Cause I'm riding solo
This was yours to lose
All that bedtimes blues
I'll leave that all for you
All for you
