The Final Hour In Hell

Carnal Forge

Set your mind on zero, refuse the light
You could be a hero and rule the night
Now your heart is so vulnerable
Your soul is an open wound
So attack the source with power and mightIt used to be like a desperate fight
Just to stay alive
Now you just pray that you have what it takes
To come over to the other sideThe final hour in hellLead your sacrificial lambs to the horde
You won't feel any guilt as you leave this world
It fades the pain, leaves all the lies unspoken
You will feel no regrets as you enter the final hourIt used to be like a desperate fight
Just to stay alive
Now you just pray that you have what it takes
To come over to the other sideThe final hour in hellAll your sins vanished from the face of the earth
Embrace the darkness that lies ahead
No more nightmares, no more downs
Just sit back and enjoy your last journey in lifeIt fades the pain, leaves all the lies unspoken
You will feel no regrets as you enter the final hourIt used to be like a desperate fight
Just to stay alive
Now you just pray that you have what it takes
To come over to the other sideThe final hour in hell
