Binary

The Spook School

You are not a computer
You are complex and undefined
So why let yourself be limited to binary desires?
To binary identities and binary ideals Like switching on or switching off choosing a bow-tie or high-heelsSo let it be complicated and hard to understand You know they would envy you
If they got their heads out of the sand So make them uncomfortable and challenge their ideals because those antiquated notions are blinding what is real I am bigger than a hexadecimal (repeat)
