

Waste Them All

Flagship

Back to earth from where you fell,
Clip your wings and cut your hair.
You'll waste them all.
You'll waste them all. Turn your face and look at me,
With deep blue eyes and lips so sweet.
You'll waste them all. Don't stop fighting,
Erase them all. Heaven for the day. Dream of rings and wedding bells, now,
Who will be the one to lift that spell?
You'll waste them all.
You'll break them all. Don't stop fighting.
Never forget,
You are golden for the day.
Hands round her waist. With eyes half closed I can see you there,
And my belly aches in a knot.
With deep brown eyes and a perfect face,
You are heaven on earth. Heaven for the day.
Hands round her waist, forever.
