Victoria

Jukebox the Ghost

Victoria approached me with a fire in her eyes
And I swear and I swear I was burning alive.
And now you're crying wolf out to the moon,
Yeah, is anybody there,
or am I just as scared as you?
And now you've given me a mission to do,
I've got to rearrange the stars so that they're not as far from you.You are so deadly, my poison of choice
And I know you've had your measure of boys
But you are so deadly, my poison of choice
And I when I drink you down,
My heart makes a sound like...This!Victoria approached me with a fire in her eyes
And I swear and I swear, I was burning alive.
You are causing me physical pain,
It's like you're handing me a knife and from my insides
And without any shameYou are so deadly, my poison of choice,
And I know you've had your measure of boys
But you are so deadly, my poison of choice
And when I drink you down,
My heart makes a sound like...This!I came down without any sense of conviction, yeah
I couldn't tell if you were a bitch or totally bitchin'Victoria has been crying, I can see it in her eyes
And a part of me is sad, but a part of me is having such a good time
I know that likely I am at fault
Oh but what the hell, I can't even tell if she's putting me on.You are so deadly, my poison of choice,
And I know you've had your measure of boys
But you are so deadly, my poison of choice
And when I drink you down,
My heart makes a sound like...This!
