

Tell Me Tomorrow

Angela Bofill

I'm not sure where all this is leading
It's nothing you said
I just get the feeling that
Something's not right
And something's about to be over
My heart's afraid to find out
I can't face the truth
If losing your love
Means that my world's gonna be the better for you
Not for me
Tell me tomorrow
Don't tell me tonight
This is no time for sorrow
Just turn out the light
If we wait one more day
Your mind might change
So tell me tomorrow
Can't it wait?
You're the one who spoke of suspiscion
But I put myself blind
Here in this position
Where two hearts won't talk
And nobody listens 'til it's over
Over
This ain't the time to give up
Some things have just changed
But the love still lingers on
We've only got what's left of us
I know it's not much
But it's enough
Ooh
So tell me tomorow
Don't tell me tonight
This is no time for sorrow
Just turn out the lights
If we wait one more day
You're mind might change
So tell me tomorrow
Can't it wait?

This ain't the time to give up
Some things have just changed
But the love still lingers on
I know it's not much
But it's enough
Ho
So tell me tomorrow
Don't tell me tonight
Your mind might change
So tell me tomorrow
Can't
(Baby can't it wait)
Oh don't tell me tonight
No time for sorrow
Just turn out the lights
Your mind might just change
So tell me tomorrow
(Baby can't it wait)
