Bloody Crime

Jag Panzer

[Broderick / Conklin][MacBeth]
In my mind's eye I raise a dagger
With means to end Duncan's life
This thought possesses even in slumber
I will commit this ghastly deed
On my servants I'll place the blame[Lady MacBeth]
You must strike. The time is thine
They'll crown Mac Beth as next in line
This kingdom ours, now is the time
We commit this bloody crime[MacBeth]
The deed is finished! What have I done? My eyes see only the stain of red[Lady MacBeth]
Consider not so deeply. Your strength is weakness
As pictures are the sleeping and the dead[MacBeth]
I cannot return, they all are slain[MacBeth]
I now bath in pools of red
This deadly deed hangs on my head
When this night is over I shall be king
[Spoken] And this will all be behind us[Lady MacBeth]
Go wash our sins away, we'll be sane tomorrow
When blame is placed and we are cleared
Go now my king to be and do not sorrow
For you and I have kingship near[MacBeth & Lady MacBeth]
Tomorrow all will testify
MacBeth is innocent this night
