

Happiness

Abra Moore

I didn't know it could feel like this
I didn't know the hurt
And I try to explain to myself
But I can't find no word So I lie about it
And I tell 'em, I'm feelin' fine
And I'll cry about it
Hoping tomorrow will change my mind Happiness has come to this
And God, it's such a heavy burden to bear I didn't know it could be like this
I didn't know it could go so far
And I try to reveal the part of me
But you can't find no scar And I lie about it
And I tell 'em I'm feelin' fine
And I cry about it
Hoping tomorrow will change my mind Happiness has come to this
And God, it's such a heavy burden to bear [Incomprehensible]
