Come Down

Bad Indians

Open up and let me in
I was lucky to live, don't need to win
Forgave myself and if that's a sin
It's not enough you'd even know it
You did right to call my bluff
'cause i won't say when i have had enough
And i worked so hard to need this stuff
And you tried so long to just ignore it
Won't you come down where i am
Words are hidden, understand
I won't repeat myself again
I will not repeat myself again
It's another promise d.o.a.
And despite my every hope
There is no truth behind my best intentioned oath
Won't you come down where i am
Words are hidden, understand
Won't you come down
Been away too long, i know i have
Won't you come down, help me stand
There is healing in your hands
Won't you come down where i am
Words all leave me
