Mahalia Buchanan

He is God almighty “ Mahalia

Come and witness
The work the Lord has done
Look to the north and south
His glory is there to shine
And look upon the west and east
To see His marvelous works
And look upon the west and east
To see His marvelous works

He is God almighty
The everlasting one
No one came before Him
And there no one like Him
The creator, healer, provider
And He is our savior
There is no one like You oh God
No one like You oh King El Shaddai

He is god almighty
The everlasting one
No one came before Him
And there no one like Him
The creator, healer, provider
And He is our savior
There is no one like You oh God
No one like You oh King.
There is no one like You oh God
El Shaddai
