December Elegy

Tristania

May thou carry me to the sea
Like autumn leaves, Heaven wither
Savage is the winter prevailing within
I fall for thee, sorrow entreating me
Makes me leave HeavenBreed my night like tears of sorrow
Creep with life the days that morrow
Descend like snowI find thy lilies there of snow
Where once I died weeping for thee
Everlasting seems the strife ascending within
Falling for thee, darkness confounding me
Makes me leave lifeBreed my night with thy sorrow
Creep with life the days that morrow
Descend like snowBreed my night with thy sorrowExaminate this pain like snow
Driven far from my efferly loss
Enter this extended night of sorrow
Pain, flowing tearsBreed my woe
Descend with broken wings
Midwinter night insideMerged by life
Like thousand frozen tears
Come melt the ice, May time
