Right Now

Here in the dark
Lying with you, this way
I'm getting butterfliesMy heart is carrying me away
To places inside your eyes
And lost in this moment
Is where I belongRight now, I know
The reason I need you so
Right now, it's clear
The reason that God has brought me hereTo hold you like there's no tomorrow
Reach into your soul, somehow
If I didn't already love you
I'd fall in love, right nowWe're here in the dark
Like so many times before
But it feels like it's our first night'Cause my heart is beating to know you more
And I'm still amazed you're mine
And in this emotion
Is where we belongRight now, I know
The reason I need you so
Right now, it's clear
The reason that God has brought me hereTo hold you like there's no tomorrow
Reach into your soul, somehow
If I didn't already love you
I'd fall in love, right nowBaby, just close your eyes
(Close your eyes)
This is where the dream begins
And girl, if the sun don't rise
Then, this night will never end
(Never end)I'm gonna hold you like there's no tomorrow
Reach into your soul, somehow
If I didn't already love you
I'd fall in love, right now
