

Lonely

Peter Andre

If you ever heard the words I just don't care
Baby please forgive the foolish heart that told you that
When the road got rough I started doubting myself
Still I can't believe that life's worth living
With anybody else So why do we say goodbye
When we know we'll only cry
We're gonna be lonely
(gonna be lonely)
And why do we fool ourselves
Saying there'll be someone else
For me there's you only
(gonna be lonely) All we need to make it right is precious time
But it's funny such a simple thing's so hard to find
Don't know when or where we started
Living separate lives
But I know it's still worth fighting for
I see it in your eyes So why do we say goodbye
When we know we'll only cry
We're gonna be lonely
(gonna be lonely)
And why do we fool ourselves
Saying there'll be someone else
For me there's you only
(gonna be lonely) Now I realise that I've been living so selfishly
Someone along the way
I forgot you had your own hopes and dreams
I never meant to make you weak
But I was too blind to see that I've been hurting you
How I made you blue
Now guilt is killing me So why do we say goodbye
When we know we'll only cry
We're gonna be lonely
(gonna be lonely)
And why do we fool ourselves
Saying there'll be someone else
For me there's you only
(gonna be lonely) (rpt to fade)
