

Fair Enough

Pastel

Maybe you will lend me your sweater
If I asked
but only if I asked

You don't really care if I'm sad or happy no you never ask and you never call me up

Chorus:

You are not my friend anymore
You have changed so much, You have changed in a bad way
You are not my friend anymore
You have changed so much, You are made of stone

It's like when you were on your trip to China You said you were too busy to reply Man you kill the birds with your lies You drink from my fountain with your dry mouth

Chorus

When you're out of luck
When you feel like crying
I wish you'd call me bending on your knees Don't count on me to be okay to be pick you up You ring me a bell
we don't have a lot of friends

Chorus
