

Unicorns Die When You Leave

Kishi Bashi

(Check, check) A cherry fruit roll-up in the evergreens
Reminiscent-distant if you did the scene
I came from the valley of fake dates and others and I'm never going back again
I woke up fresh as a honey dew,
Makin' brew (hoo, hoo)
And the city view
When the rain comes a picking I pack up my boogie
And I float down the boulaview When you feather your knees and you're aiming to please, you look up right now Cause everything is looking alright
And it's 'bout time you looking to be breaking in the evening news Cause it's your fight and nothing falls far quicker than your body in the lick of booze And if your following all the rules, there ain't nothing cool (woo hoo hoo hoo) I'm feeling Sydney Green like a canopy
A 1000 days of thunder cracking in my jeans
I ran into the back of a flat town bodega
Just to see you in the magazine
I took you home with some Philadelphia cream cheese
Breaded and spreaded it on the back of page 3
I found a space for your face on the crank case
And I've got all I need Cause I didn't know when I would see you again in the flesh and blood But everything is looking alright
And it's 'bout time you looking to be breaking in the evening news Cause it's your fight and nothing falls far quicker than your body in the lick of booze Oh baby alright and I'll be thinking of you when I walk down the boulaview When you broke you made all the magic gone, I laid it down
You murdered our favorite friend Sleep and dream your way back to me
I'll sell my soul and resurrect her again When you broke (magic's gone) you made all the magic gone,
I laid it down (because I murdered her) I murdered you
And if you sleep and dream your way back to me I'll sell my soul and resurrect all you Oh baby alright and I'll be thinking of you when I walk down the boulaview
