

Half An Hour

Mint Condition

[Verse 1:]

When I First Met You, It Was Business...
We Worked Hard, Cause We Both Love What We Do...
Then We Noticed, Sexual Tensions...
Oh Did I, Forget To Mention...
I've Always Been True...
To My Baby Till Now, Got Me Thinkin' Bout'[Hook:]
It Only Takes A Half An Hour To...
Do Something That You Can't Undo
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Telling Myself Yeah!)
In The Moment It Looks Good To You...
But You Don't Know What You're About To Go Through
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Telling Myself)[Verse 2:]

You Like The... Way That I Listen...
The Next Thing... We Were Kissin'
Am I A Fool...
I Was Baffled When You Started To Undress,
How Did I Get Into This Mess
What Am I To Do...
Is It Worth Givin' Up... The House, Car, Kids...
Money, Will I Wish...
I Had My Life Back, My Lady That I'll Miss...
How Would I Feel If My Baby, Lived Unfaithfully...
It Would Be No Fault But My Own,
I Guess I'll Deserve Being Left Alone...[Hook:]
It Only Takes A Half An Hour To...
Do Something That You Can't Undo
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Telling Myself Yeah!)
In The Moment It Looks Good To You...
But You Don't Know What You're About To Go Through
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Saying)[Bridge:]
She's Like A Politician, Campaigning For The Crown...
Trying To Strike A Nerve, And Break Me On Down
(While My Intuition, Shakin' Me Up, Trying To Cut In)
Don't Know Why A Man Continues, To Make The Same Mistakes...

Over And Over, Day After Day...
(It's Like A Drug, Straight To My Head, Got Me Hooked)
Got Me Misled! [Hook:]
It Only Takes A Half An Hour To...
Do Something That You Can't Undo
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Telling Myself Yeah!)
In The Moment It Looks Good To You...
But You Don't Know What You're About To Go Through
It Could Change Your World
(That's What I Keep Saying)
