

Coma

Slapshock

am i sleeping forever am i drowning in fear are my sins unforgiven will you still let me ini was crucified buried down alive
wasted all my timewhere is the road
and whats the time
everything is gone in my own eyes im lost in the darki wish im not the same old me will you still remember me im lost in your heartis this place getting colder and theres nobody here are my days are really over give me sign make it cleari was crucified
buried down alive
everything is gone in my own eyesim lost in the dark i wish im not the same old me
im lost in your heartim running away from delusions im living my life way too fast what surrounds me are illusions it tears me apart lost in the darkest hourwhere is the road
and whats the time
im lost in your heart
