

That Car Came out of Nowhere

Braid

if i was in a band
this would end
yours is a diary that i've been dying to ready you've been skimming the surface and i've been saying essays so i talk novels to your short plays you came out of nowhere and caused a collision but it will take more to break the engine
this would end
the lights were dim
when i cut it
it was a three day moment a simple affirmation and so i guess congratulations to come out of nowhere and set sail a friendship now i've got a reason to be sarcastic, caustic lipstick i am a car and you do want to crush me too i do have a steel heart to crush you steal my heart
