Unbound (The Wild Ride)

Avenged Sevenfold

Somewhere life is good and things go as they should
It's hard to find but thats alright
Searching for the way, push harder everyday
It's deep inside that shining light
But I'm scarred by barriers placed in my path, I'm scathedThis ride that takes me through life
Leads me into darkness but emerges into light
No one can ever slow me down, I'll stay unboundSometimes when we're young and always on the run
It gets so dark and I know that place
So don't be too concerned, you've got a lot to learn
Well, so do I and we've got plenty of time
Don't fall off the track yet with so many races to go, hold onThis ride that takes me through life
Leads me into darkness but emerges into light
No one can ever slow me down, I'll stay unboundSome live so wrong, with what we do is each his own
Living in fear, endless shame for countless years
I never lived in fear, I knew I'd die another day
I never viewed my life as something slipping awaySome live so wrong, with what we do is each his own
But living in fear, endless shame for countless years
I never lived in fear, I knew I'd die another day
I never viewed my life as something slipping awayThere's nothing here to take for granted
With each breath that we take
The hands of time strip youth from our bodies
And we fade, memories remain as time goes onThere's nothing here to take for granted
With each breath that we take
The hands of time strip youth from our bodies
And we fade, memories remain as time goes on
