

Are We In Trouble Now

Mark Knopfler

It wasn't just the music
It wasn't just the wine
Some other kind of magic
Was sending shivers up my spine
And I was falling
And I fell for you and how
Darling, are we in trouble now
They say, we're grown up
We've been searching all this time
I wouldn't own up
Never would admit to flying blind
But in the darkness
We found each other anyhow
Darling, are we in trouble now
When we'd talk it over
Love was a cry from a distant shore
Then we found each other
And all that we'd been searching for
And I'm done denying
I guess, by now you know
I'm through with trying
Can't bring myself to let you go
And all of these feelings
We said, we never would allow
Darling, are we in trouble now
Yeah darling, are we in trouble now
