Damaged

Zounds

Didn't You hurt yourself? Couldn't You wash the blood away? Didn't You love yourself? (God, God, God, God, God) Couldn't You see the truth? Didn't You wake to see the light? Couldn't You hear the truth? (God, God, God, God, God) God, You're so shameless Stand up to me, I know what You'll say God, You're so shameless Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain? How could You really know as Your blood flows The damage left inside? If You should ever see the pain in me You'd wish it away Didn't You hurt yourself? Didn't You love yourself? (God, God, God, God, God) Couldn't You find yourself? Such a shame, it's a waste of life Couldn't You save yourself? (God, God, God, God, God) God, You're so shameless Stand up to me, I know what You'll say God, You're so shameless Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain? How could You really know as Your blood flows The damage left inside? If You should ever see the pain in me You'd wish it away How could You really know as Your blood flows The damage left inside? If You should ever see the pain in me You'd wish it away God, You're so shameless God, You're so shameless God, You're so shameless

Stand up to me, I know what You'll say

God, You're so shameless
Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain
How could You really know as Your blood flows
The damage left inside?
If You should ever see the pain in me
You'd wish it away
How could You really know as Your blood flows
The damage left inside?
If You should ever see the pain in me
You'd wish it away
How could You really know?
How could You really know?
