

Letting Go

Jeremy Camp

Gripping on so tight
With the security I have inside
Knowing what is right
Holding onto my pride
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
I have been brought to a place
Where I want to give up everything
Where all I can do is seek your face
And my brokenness I will bring
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
Holding on to the things I deem so strong
Holding on even tho' my faith has been built so long
Holding on to the things I deem so strong
Holding on to what I know
I'm letting go
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
Letting go of the things I hold so dear
Letting go of all my pain and all my fears
Letting go
I'm letting go
