

Reconstruction Site (CBC Radio 01-2003)

The Weakerthans

I'm lost, I'm afraid
A frayed rope tying down a leaky boat
To the roof of a car on the road in the dark
And it's snowing If I'm more, then it means less
Last call for happiness
I'm your dress near the back of your knees
And your slip is showing I'm afloat
Afloat in a summer parade
Up the street in the town that you were born in
With a girl at the top, wearing tulle And a Miss Somewhere sash
Waving like the queen
Beauty's just another word
I'm never certain how to spell Go tell the nurse to turn the TV back on
And throw away my misery
It never meant that much to me
It never sent a 'Get Well' card I broke like a bad joke somebody's uncle told
At a wedding reception in 1972
Where a little boy under a table with cake in his hair
Stared at the grown-up feet as they danced and swayed And his father laughed and talked on the long ride home
And his mother laughed and talked on the long ride home
And he thought about how everyone dies someday
And when tomorrow gets here, where will yesterday be? And fell asleep in his brand-new winter coat
Buy me a shiny new machine that runs on lies and gasoline
And all those batteries we stole from smoke-alarms
And disassembles my despair It never took me anywhere
It never once bought me a drink

Songwriters

Stephen Allan Carroll; John Paul Sutton; John Samson; Jason Tait Published by WEAKERTHANS, THE Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>