

So In Love

Jeremy Camp

So many times I've fallen, so many ways I've failed You
So many times I've stepped out on my own
I know I'm undeserving but I feel You are preserving
The only good that I have shown The only words that I can bring
Are these very words I sing
So, I sing to You now 'Cause I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I'd choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You Nothing can separate me from the grace that You gave free
I know You'll never let me go
Even though You know my frailties, every single thing about me
You showed the greatest love that's known The only words that I can bring
Are these very words I sing
So, I sing to You now Oh, I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I'd choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You Oh, I am so in love with You
And there's nothing else I'd choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You, now Time and time again You show the depth of love that You bestow
I'll never fully understand, it's too great for me to know
But I'll always try to bring, I'll try to bring You everything, oh yeah I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I'd choose
You've stolen my heart
Oh, You have my heart now I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I'd choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, oh, I know it's true now I am so in love with You
Stolen my heart, yes
Here is my heart Oh, Jesus, I'm so in love with You
There's nothing else I'd do
You've stolen my heart, yes
I'm all, I'm all for You, now I'm so in love, there's nothing else in this world
That I will ever compare to you
I'm [Incomprehensible] You, oh, my Jesus
You are my everything, You are everything
I'm so in love with You
Oh, my Jesus, my Jesus, here is my heart
