

Ever Since New York

Harry Styles

Tell me something, tell me something
You don't know nothing, just pretend you do
I need something, so tell me something new
Choose your words 'cause there's no antidote
For this curse or what's it waiting for
Must desert you just before you go Oh, tell me something I don't already know
Oh, tell me something I don't already know Brooklyn saw me, empty avenues
There's no water inside this swimming pool
Almost over, that's enough from you
I've been praying, I never did before
Understand I'm talking to the walls
And I've been praying ever since New York Oh, tell me something I don't already know
Oh, tell me something I don't already know
Oh, tell me something I don't already know
Oh, tell me something I don't already know
