Sweet Trip

Tell me something that I don't already know
Tell me how you plan to save the world
I'm tired of people trying to tell me what is right
I'm tired of people trying to show me howI know that you might never understand the way I feel
I made a promise to myself that I would never let it showNever look down, never look down
Just keep my focus straight ahead
And try to walk this lineTell me all about your favorite human being
Tell me everything about yourself
God, the story is so terribly interesting
I wonder what's so good about myselfSo, let me take a good look at your perfect life
So, I know exactly how I don't want mineEveryday I see these Same four walls that keep me here
And I want to change the things that hurt
I want to end this constant fearNever look down, never look down
Keep my focus straight ahead
And try to walk this line
