

Just Can't Let You Go

Omarion

This feels so good

B. Cox, Omarion

In the beginnin', we were supposed to be temporary
But you put that thing on me, they tryna explain to me
That I should just let it be 'cause I'm lookin' crazy
But I can't be concerned with that, I'm tryna get it again

I'm not that hard, you pull my card

Girl, I'm tryna kick the habit, I'm an addict

I can't let you go, even though I know

That you're not one for me, it ain't good for me

I just can't let you go

You got a man but you all up on me

And I know I should let it go, you knockin' at my door

And put the blame on me when you're talkin' to your homies

Now I ain't concerned with that, I'm tryna get it again

I'm not that hard, you pull my card

Girl, I'm tryna kick the habit, I'm an addict

I can't let you go, even though I know

That you're not one for me, it ain't good for me

I just can't let you go

Let it go

Just can't let you go

Omarion

I'm not that hard, you pull my card

Girl, I'm tryna kick the habit, I'm an addict

I can't let you go, even though I know

That you're not one for me, it ain't good for me

I just can't let you go
